Resale

The candle massage range

We offer with this ritual an original and sophisticated treatment. The heat of the wax and the massage technique with the forearms make this treatment a moment of absolute relaxation.

The candle massage, the cocooning ritual

The candle massage is wonderfully relaxing because the massage is done with the forearms. This enveloping technique will release your client's tensions. The use of lukewarm wax makes this treatment a cocooning moment with the scents of coconut or orange blossom.

It is possible to decline it only in back massage for a relaxing break.

Cocooning ritual

The organic shea butter of this candle gives it nourishing properties. Its orange blossom fragrance is particularly refined.

The slimming range

We have drawn on the strength of marine active ingredients to develop this slimming treatment. It acts on the different components of cellulite to break it, eliminate it and promote the drainage of toxins.

Ajustez ! treatment firm and refine the body

This treatment begins with a tonic phase thanks to the exfoliation with organic Guérande salt scrub. It continues with a detoxifying phase with the application of the green tea wrap. The last step of this treatment is the draining phase obtained thanks to the combination of slimming body oil and palpate-roll techniques. Complete the action of the active ingredients in this treatment by applying the slimming body gel.

The effectiveness of this treatment is reinforced by a cure treatment.

Refine the body

Target stubborn areas with the slimming body gel. Its objectified marine active ingredient extracted from brown algae promotes the destocking of adipocytes and combines with menthol and peppermint to tone and provide a feeling of freshness. It also acts on cellulite, characterized by a dimpled appearance of the skin called "orange peel". The skin is thus smoothed and regains its firmness.
